General Information

Safety and Security

- Wild Nights is a “lock-in” event. Cosley Zoo perimeter fence will be locked at 7 p.m. and will only be unlocked in the event of an emergency. Several Cosley Zoo staff members stay overnight.
- For the success of the overnight, we ask that chaperones stay with their group at all times and make sure they are following the rules of the group and the zoo.

Scheduling

- Reservations must be made with a minimum of four weeks advance notice.

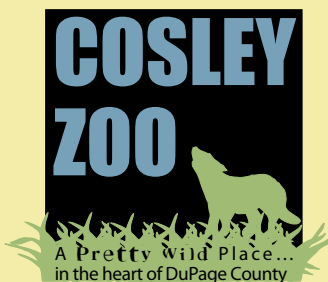

Payment

- A $50 nonrefundable deposit is due at the time of the reservation. The balance is due one week before the overnight.
- No refunds are issued unless Cosley Zoo cancels the event.
- Prior to final payment being made, you may adjust the number of participants. However, once your balance payment has been submitted, it is up to your group to fill all of the spaces reserved.

Making a Reservation

- When calling to make a reservation for your group's overnight, please have the following information:
 - First and second choice of dates for your overnight.
 - Group leader contact information.
 - Age or age range of youth participants.
 - Anticipated number of participants.
 - Preference for tent or indoor camping.
